

2019 Cisco TX Pie Fest

Pie Baking Contest Information, Rules and Entry Form

Categories

- Youth, (17 years old and under), all categories listed below.
- Fruit Pie (i.e., cherry, apple, peach, berry, etc.). Pies may have single or double crust. Pies may have crumb topping instead of top crust. Refrigerated or unrefrigerated.
- Nut Pie, (any pie with peanuts, tree nuts, or nut butters as an ingredient). Refrigerated or unrefrigerated.
- Cream Pie (i.e., ice-box pies, chess pies, custard pies, cream pies, meringue pies, no-cook pies, etc.). Refrigerated or unrefrigerated.

Entries

- Entry fee is $10 per entry; bakers may enter more than one pie per category. Bakers may enter pies in more than one category. An entry form must be completed for each pie entry.
- Early entry forms are being accepted now through June 7, 2019. Early entry forms should be submitted with entry fees to Cisco Senior Nutrition Program, 1498 West I-20, Cisco, TX 76437. Make checks payable to Cisco Strong Inc. Bakers should make a copy of their entry forms to present when they bring their pies to the contest.
- Bakers must submit 2 examples of each pie entry. One will be used in the judging and the other will auctioned or sold during the Pie Fest, with all proceeds benefitting the Cisco Senior Nutrition Program. Winning pies will be auctioned off at the Pavilion; all other pies will be sold at Slowpoke Farm Market after the judging.
- Contest is open to everyone, including professional bakers.
